DAVID WOLTERING, AICP, MPA Community Planning Consultant 707/291-2858

EXPERIENCE

Woltering Community Planning, LLC San Francisco Bay Area, CA

2018 - Present

In October of 2018, I formed the independent consulting firm of Woltering Community Planning, LLC with the purpose to continue offering my service in the field of Community Development to both public agencies and private sector clients. The focus of my work and professional passion is to create more livable, diverse, and inclusive communities, balancing the needs and interests of economic development, downtown revitalization, balanced growth, and environmental protection. Specific skills that I offer include Government Administration, Community Development, Housing Development, Economic Development, and Active Transport.

Major accomplishments during this period include providing comprehensive Interim Community Development services to two communities, the City of Clayton and the City of Healdsburg, in Northern California. In Clayton, much work involved entitling a controversial senior housing project that included affordable housing units and work in Healdsburg involved project level entitlements for mixed-use components in three large Area Plan developments - Saggio Hills/Montage; North Village; and Mill District. This work involved continuum of care senior housing, affordable housing, commercial, hotel, and resort development. In Healdsburg, a significant aspect of the work involved implementing COVID -19 protocols and continuing to deliver development services safely during this period. The duration of work in both communities was 10 months plus.

Community Development Director, City of San Bruno San Bruno, CA

2013 - 2018

As San Bruno's Community Development Director, I was responsible for the City's Planning (Current and Long-Range), Housing, Building, Environmental, and Code Enforcement functions. I oversaw approximately 14 FTEs, other consultant staff, and had significant coordination involvement with other departments, including Police, Fire, Public Services (Public Works) and Community Services (Parks and Recreation)).

I joined the City of San Bruno during a period of completing a 155+/- acre downtown Specific Plan, referred to as the San Bruno Transit Corridors Plan (TCP); when there was a need to continue efforts to rebuild the Crestmoor residential neighborhood, where 38 homes had been completely destroyed, many more damaged, and, tragically, eight lives lost as a result of the PG&E gas line explosion and fire that occurred on September 9, 2010; when there was a strong desire to remove many long-standing vacant buildings scattered throughout the City's downtown and nearby commercial areas; when there was a desire to revitalize and redevelop many properties in the downtown and surrounding area, developing new housing units linked to public transit and employment opportunities; and, when there was a desire to substantially strengthen the community's overall Code Enforcement program. During the more than five one half years that I worked for the City of San Bruno, there was significant progress and accomplishment within all areas of my responsibility.

Within the TCP area, planned for Transit-Oriented Development in conjunction with a Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) station and a Caltrain station, a 15,220 square foot medical office building was entitled and completed, replacing a previous obsolete and outdated office building; a three-story, 83-residential unit mixed-use building, with 7,000 square feet of ground floor commercial space was entitled and is under construction, replacing several long-vacant buildings; and a five-story, 62- unit residential condominium (18% affordable) mixed-use building, with 7,700 square feet of ground floor commercial space is in an entitlement phase, with the demolition and removal of a pre-existing long-vacant bank building on the property completed.

During my tenure as Director, I oversaw a comprehensive update to the City's Housing Element and an update to the City's Inclusionary Housing Ordinance, and adoption of Affordable Housing Commercial Linkage fees.

There are a number of Public projects that were completed or are underway including completion of the City's first Walk 'n Bike Plan (a citywide Bicycle and Pedestrian Master Plan); preparation of a comprehensive update to the City's Zoning Code; preparation and adoption of a Climate Action Plan; preparation of a Comprehensive Downtown Parking Management Plan; and, preparation of a Streetscape Plan for the downtown segment of San Mateo Avenue, the City's primary downtown shopping street.

Community Development Director, City of Clayton Clayton. CA

2008 - 2013

As Clayton's Community Development Director, I directed a range of the City's functions, including current and long-range planning, building services administration, the City's affordable housing program administration, environmental review, and code enforcement. An important aspect of this work was to assume projects that were underway and keep them progressing forward, while maintaining a sense of stability, continuity, and collaborative team effort within the Department and larger working group. Specific projects that I was involved with included the completion of the Town Center Specific Plan Urban Design Amendment; review of the Creekside Terrace mixed-use project; initiation of the review process of the Clayton Community Church project; adoption of the City's Housing Element Update; administration of the City's purchase and re-sale of affordable housing units; and, resolution of several contentious, long-standing code enforcement matters.

Director of Planning, City of Cotati, Cotati, CA

2001-2008

As Director of Planning for the City of Cotati during one of its most significant development periods in its history, I was responsible for overseeing or directly involved with the following projects: adoption and implementation of the City of Cotati Sustainability Program; initial and subsequent phase development of Cotati's Santero Way Specific Plan, a 23-acre transit-oriented development (TOD) with transit/train station, housing and commercial development along the SMART corridor; successful entitlement processing and construction of Lowe's Home Improvement store, the City's primary economic engine, as part of a mixed commercial/ residential development on 35 acres at the northwest quadrant of U.S. Highway 101 and Highway 116; preparation and successful adoption of a form-based Land Use Code; successful entitlement processing and construction of award-winning mixed-use/sustainable infill development; and, completion of the initial phase of work, involving a citywide visioning and charrette process, for a major Downtown Specific Plan and comprehensive update to the City of Cotati General Plan. To address the needs of the increased development activity, I put in place a multi-disciplinary Staff Review Committee (SRC) to help streamline the development review process as well as to improve communication among the various City departments and pertinent agencies.

Planning and Management Consultant, Santa Rosa, CA

1999-2001

As principal of my own consulting firm, I offered a wide-range of services including Project Management, Project Feasibility Analysis, Land Use Planning, Entitlement/Permit Processing, Public Facilitation, and Land Use/Environmental Dispute Resolution. These services were offered to private entities and public agencies. My clients included the County of Sonoma Permit and Resource Management Department, the Sonoma County Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO), Sonoma County Regional Parks, City of Petaluma, the City of Cotati, Veale Investments, and Lindsey Michels Property Management and Investments.

Planning Director, Town of Windsor Windsor, CA

1993-1999

As the Town of Windsor's first Planning Director after incorporation, I was responsible for overseeing current and long-range planning and working with Town officials to put the community's planning framework into place (Windsor was incorporated in 1992). Specific responsibilities included managing the preparation of the Town's first General Plan (Including Housing Element), Design Guidelines, Downtown Plan and Town Green Plan; Growth Management Ordinance; the processing of current development applications, ranging from entitlements for the Shiloh Commercial Center, the Town's primary economic engine, use permits and variances to major General Plan amendments, rezonings, and subdivision maps; overseeing the Town's compliance with the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) for both City and private projects; and, supervising the Town's code enforcement activities. The position also required coordinating the planning-related activities of various departments and serving as a spokesperson for the Town on planning matters with outside agencies.

Principal Planner, City of Rocklin Rocklin, CA

1987-1993

As Principal Planner, I supervised the day-to-day activities of the City of Rocklin Planning Department. Specific responsibilities included supervising the professional and clerical staff for the purpose of processing a wide-range of development applications. Applications ranged from use permits and variances to major General Plan amendments, rezonings and subdivision maps. In addition, this position required management of special projects, including preparation of a city-wide transportation study, a Civic Center Specific Plan, and a Housing Element Update.

Planning Consultant, Martin Carpenter Associates San Carlos, CA

1984-1987

In this position, I was involved with a broad-range of urban and regional planning assignments for both public and private sector clients. These assignments included acting in the capacity of a staff planner for both the Town of Los Altos Hills and the City of San Carlos; preparing staff reports and environmental documentation for the cities of San Mateo and Belmont; and processing development applications through communities for private clients, including the Federal Express Corporation. My concluding responsibilities included supervising the day-to-day operations of the City of San Carlos Planning Department.
