

Proclamation

In Recognition of Mr. David Nasaw

Town of Ross, California

WHEREAS, Mr. David Nasaw, a Ross resident, has been a generous benefactor of the Town of Ross Police Department, beginning his charitable contributions in 2012 and continuing his steadfast support every year since; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Nasaw's sustained charitable contributions play a critical role in safeguarding those who protect us, and through his visionary support, the Town's first responders are equipped with state-of-the-art protective gear, advanced technological upgrades, and vital operational tools; and

WHEREAS, this investment has done more than modernize the department; it has ensured that the Town's police officers can answer every call for service with the highest degree of safety and confidence, ultimately creating a more secure environment for every resident, business owner, and visitor in the community; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Nasaw's quiet and consistent generosity, given year after year without expectation of recognition, reflects the very best of the civic spirit that defines the Town of Ross; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Town of Ross hereby extends its deepest gratitude to Mr. David Nasaw for his exceptional generosity and enduring commitment to the Town of Ross. His investment in our first responders does more than modernize a department; it strengthens the safety and security of every resident, business owner, and visitor in our community, and the Town is profoundly grateful for his visionary support.
